

Prema Agni

DRAWING THE PREMA AGNI

Prema Agni means 'Fire of Divine Love'. This precious symbol opens the heart for Love to flow IN and OUT.

Prema Agni can be drawn on anyone, by anyone. On receiving this symbol, you pledge to donate $7 to a good cause (not to the person who draws it for you).

DRAWING PREMA AGNI

Ask the recipient to stand with their back to you and close their eyes. Make sure it is okay to draw this symbol on the person by asking your Higher Guidance. If you hear silence, it is safe to proceed.

Draw Prema Agni over the heart chakra on their back and down the spine. It is important that when you draw the zigzag on step two, you draw exactly 9 points.

After you have drawn the symbol, place your right hand over the heart chakra on the person's back and your left hand lightly on their left shoulder. Then repeat to yourself three times, "Prema Agni, Prema Agni, Prema Agni." At this point, energy will flow from Source, through you and out your hand, energizing the symbol.

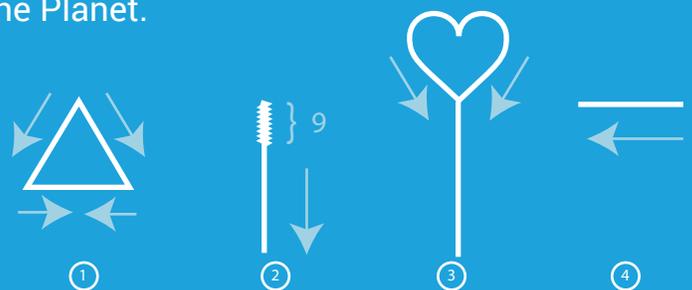

Keep your hand in that position until you feel the energy is complete and has stopped flowing (usually this will be several seconds).

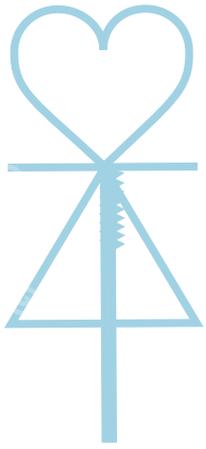

After the energy is complete, gently bring your hand back from the person's heart chakra, and hold your hand 2-3 inches from the person's physical body, with your palm facing the person's heart chakra. Keep your hand in this position for several seconds while debris leaves the person's heart chakra.

When you feel this release is complete, very gently tap the person's shoulders three times with the index and middle fingers of your hands (tap both shoulders at the same time). Then snap your fingers with both hands to disconnect from the person's energy.

Allow the person to stand quietly integrating the Prema Agni energy for as long as they wish. Some people will open their eyes immediately, and some will stand in meditation for several minutes. Either way is fine. When the person opens their eyes, you may hug them if it feels appropriate.

Please give a copy of this to whomever you draw the symbol on, so they can in turn share it with others, thus opening LOVE for the Planet.

HOW THE PREMA AGNI WORKS

Step 1

The drawing of the Triangle opens a sacred gateway or portal into your being. As the Triangle is drawn many people lose a sense of physical denseness, and become aware only of the Triangle as a remarkable entranceway. It may feel like a timeless oneness with a feeling of tremendous Love, wonder and beauty.

Step 2

The zigzag line with nine points may feel like a laser beam, a lightning bolt cutting out anything that doesn't serve you and pulling it down to the fires of the Kundalini to be transformed into Light. A wonder of miracle proportion and a recognition or memory of every dimension in which our souls exist. And this is why the zigzag can be so effective because all we are is Light, so any tool that moves to clear debris is met with no resistance.

Step 3

The Drawing of the Heart is able to pass through the armoring of the upper back because it is so unexpected that your defenses may be suspended and you may experience a freedom, or powerful release. For some, this feels like angel wings unfurling.

Step 4

The base of the Heart meets the tip of the Triangle and a line or stem of the Heart is drawn into the Triangle pulling the Heart with it. Because of the small aperture at the tip of the Triangle and the speed at which the line is being drawn the fullness of the Heart "pops" into the center and a radiant combination of Divinity and Love vibrates out into your whole system.

Step 5

The Horizontal Line drawn from the right moves across the back intersecting the tip of the Triangle on its journey to your left side. As the line finishes, a remarkable thing may happen. This seemingly one dimensional line may suddenly arch into the middle of your body at precisely the center point where the Line met the Triangle earlier. The feel of this new Line may be like an arrow and the power behind it like the bow of a large ice cutter ship (this boat may cut through anything - darkness, hesitation, etc.) Incredibly, almost simultaneously the Triangle tips from a vertical position to a horizontal one, pulled into position by the ice cutter and explodes Divine Love through and out your heart center. Here is where many experience pure Bliss.
